

M. E. Church Notes.

How rapidly time moves along. It is said "Time and Tide Waits for No Man," and so it is. This conference year is speedily passing along, and soon the first will have gone into the past. One week from next Sunday will be the time of the second quarterly meeting already, and the year will be nearly half gone, and so soon. Dr. Chase will be here Saturday night and at 7 o'clock hold the business session of the conference, and will preach on Sunday morning at the regular preaching hour, following the Sunday school.

The pastor will preach a short sermon next Sunday morning and immediately afterward administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. He does this in order that Dr. Chase may not be in any way hampered in his preaching the following Sunday morning. It is to be hoped that all the members of the church, and especially all who have recently come into the church will attend this communion service.

The W. F. M. S. meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cook, last Friday afternoon was a most delightful affair. In spite of the extreme cold and the raging blizzard at that time there were twelve members present and a good program was rendered. Mrs. Kittie Thatcher had charge as leader, and Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Dr. Evans, Mrs. Margaret Conrad, Mrs. Kunz and the pastor each had something to do on the program. At the close, Mrs. Cook served a dainty two-course lunch, consisting of chicken, sandwiches, olives, salad, tea, coffee, ice cream and two kinds of cake. This was followed by an hour of social life. Every one present had a delightful time. According to the present schedule the March meeting will be held with Mrs. Sarah Ramsay, but inasmuch as Mrs. Ramsay has moved to the country, the meeting at her home will doubtless be postponed until the settled weather of the later spring.

Bishop John M. Walden, who so recently died at his winter home in Florida, prefaced his will with this statement of his faith in God. It is a sublime preamble. I give to the readers of these notes from his own pen:

"I, John Morgan Walden, believing in God, the Father Almighty, and in his Son, and in the Holy Spirit, one with the Father and the Son, the Trinity God, my Redeemer and benefactor, deem it fitting to preface my last will with a grateful acknowledgement of my Heavenly Father's gracious providence which has kept, guided, and helped me from childhood to this day. For more than fifty years this adorable Father has accepted my service in His Church in which he mercifully led me, a wayward youth, some sixty years ago."

It was our good fortune to be, with my wife, the special guest at the dinner given last Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rayhill, in honor of their son and his wife, who were recently married and who expect within a few days to move to their home near Nevada, Mo. The day was most pleasantly spent, and enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Rayhill was assisted in preparing the splendid dinner, by her two daughters, Mrs. John Scott, and Mrs. Ralph Moore.

Bishop Shepard, of Kansas City, Kas., has been chosen to preach the Baccalaureate sermon for the high school graduates in this year in Oregon. He is a live wire. He strikes twelve every time he takes the platform. He is one of the younger men of the church and is modern in all of his thinking. He will bring a great message for the young life of this community. He also preached the sermon at Northwestern university, two years ago when Miss Loraine King, one of our high school teachers, and Miss Anna Curry, now Mrs. J. J. Rayhill, graduated from that great school. Oregon is to be signally honored in being able to secure him for this occasion.

Next Sunday will be the regular time for the service at the Culp school house. The entire community is urged to attend. We soon will organize a Sunday school at this place to begin on the first Sunday in April, and for that reason we want every boy and girl and every man and woman in the neighborhood to be interested in the matter, so come to the service next Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

We had a most enjoyable time in going back to the Barnard circuit, where we put in four delightful years in our ministry. We had the distinction of preaching Sunday night at the Mt. Ayr church, where we held the great revival five years ago, and was met by a crowded house. We had a good service.

We hear mighty fine things about Prof. Powell's sermon at our church last Sunday morning. He greatly pleased the people, and therefore I am greatly pleased with him. I very much appreciate his willingness to help out when a "Fellow is in trouble." Here's my hand, Prof., in grateful acknowledgement for the kindness.

The Sunday school went far beyond the hundred mark again last Sunday morning, in spite of the extreme cold weather. That's fine. We will have to make more room soon to accommodate the work of the Sunday school. Let us not forget that it is classed as the most important work of the church. It is the church of tomorrow.

Can you beat this record for baby chicks? Three weeks ago I set two of my pullets, one on eleven eggs, the other on thirteen eggs, and Tuesday morning, February 10, I took the one with eleven eggs off, with eleven fine baby chicks, and the other, which had thirteen eggs, with eleven chicks, making twenty-two altogether. Early fries. Well, yes, I guess so.

Chas. Fields and wife went to St. Joseph, Thursday evening.

Alf. Kunkel began loading his car, Tuesday, to leave for Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Rayhill and Christena visited at the home of Clarence Rayhill, Sunday.

Chas. Fields, wife and Leona Crown drove to St. Joseph, Thursday, returning Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Kunkel and family visited Mrs. Kunkel's brother, Mr. Kennedy, last week.

Mrs. Dan Dreher entertained Mesdames Fred Dreher and A. E. Kelley, at dinner, Wednesday.

Burt Venen and family, Fred Davis and Katherine Terry were entertained by Will Terry and wife, Sunday.

Max Babb and family started for their new home, the last of last week. Mr. Edwards moved onto the place Mr. Babb left.

Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Roberts entertained Dr. and Mrs. Babcock and children and Mrs. J. W. Davis, at dinner, Wednesday.

Quite a number went from here to the show in Oregon, Wednesday night of last week. "Flossie Stephenson" was the attraction.

Mrs. Maud Lemon and youngest children returned from Oregon, Sunday, where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Wright.

Dan Dreher, Emmett Hodgkin, Harold Hodgkin, Shan Hardman and Chas. Glenn went to St. Joseph, Thursday, to attend the auto show.

Mrs. James Cain gave a quilting and dinner, Wednesday, to a few neighbors and friends. We will not vouch for the amount of quilting done, but will for the pleasant day spent.

As last Saturday was Mr. and Mrs. Will Shunk's "china wedding," the relatives and friends gave them a surprise dinner. Owing to the cold weather, many who were invited, could not attend.

Flossie and Perry Boswell, Albert and Myrtle Bender, Clara Stevenson, Robert Kneale and Orra and Retta Boswell spent Sunday at Will Springer's. It is hardly necessary to add that Joe Pralswater went up in the evening.

The 4th inst., being the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Lentz, the near relatives of both, gave them a surprise dinner; and it was a sure enough surprise, too. The many friends of both wish them many, many more anniversaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Cold Wave and kiddies, who were dated for January, side-tracked somewhere north of here, came in on the early Monday breeze, Friday. Their entertainment was surely a howling success. Forcettelli they used the "feathers" saved by "Old Mother Goose." We are glad they had only one day here. The influence of that one day's performance is still being felt. They certainly accomplished some good, as those who were fortunate enough to have the water to freeze, can have ice for next summer. This is another object lesson to teach us that there is good to be found in everything. If we only dig deep enough to find it.

We are glad Grandma Fansher was able to visit Sunday and Monday with her son, D. B. Fansher, and wife.

Mrs. Frank Stout and two sons, Herbie and Harrel, and little daughter, Ethel, all spent Wednesday with Mrs. Hanna, of the Highland neighborhood.

Jesse Stout made his trip to Oregon, Friday evening, as usual in his car, returning home with his sisters, Misses Minnie and Goldie, from their school.

Dewey Cooksey, who has had a serious siege with pneumonia, has improved wonderfully, being now able to sit up and rest in his chair. His many friends are more than anxious to hear of his continued improvement, and hope to see him out and around again.

Alex. Cooksey had an accident a few days ago. On his way home from Forbes his team became frightened at the Meade crossing, and with a quick move and force they turned his wagon over, and as luck would have it, nothing serious was done, and by the help of his neighbors they got his wagon on its wheels and he made his trip home.
